

Mark David

999 Main Street • Any Town, NY 99999 • email@yahoo.com • (999) 999-9999

OBJECTIVE: Opportunity to contribute to a research-driven environment where science, research and technology are of the highest quality.

Science: Participate in improving the health and the quality of live for people and animals around the world.

Effective Communications: Listening, assessing needs, addressing both spoken and unspoken concerns, developing solutions.

Planning and Organization: Record of identifying needs and effectively carrying out all stages of program planning and implementation.

EXPERIENCE

2005–2007 ABC Inc.

Any Town, NY

Laboratory Technician

- Conducted chemical (stability, purity, active substance content) and physical laboratory Tests of finished products (disinfectants and sanitizing products).
- Analyzed and documented test data and results for research, product development and Quality control to release products for sale.
- Set up laboratory equipment, instrumentation and analytical tests.
- Applied knowledge of biological processes to develop new powerful and green approach Designed disinfectants.

2004-2006 XYZ Corp.

Any Town, NY

Laboratory Technician

- Quantified Polyamine, Amino Acid, Protein, and Chlorophyll levels in foliage samples.
- Ordered chemicals and equipment for the lab.
- Generated graphs to depict the results of the analyses.

1999–2004 BCD Inc.

Any Town, NY

Laboratory Technician

- Testing for purity of amino acids using High Performance Liquid Chromatographs and Gas Chromatographs.
- Performing machinery maintenance.
- Using dilutions and spectrophotometer to test purity of vitamins.
- Using an automatic titrator to test for purity of refined products.
- Performing Atomic Absorption testing.
- Analyzing fermentation products.
- Performing FTIR analysis of acid samples.

EDUCATION

New York University
■ B.S., Chemistry

New York, NY

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

PORTFOLIO

JeffTheCareerCoach.com